Alternative dispute resolutions? Our backyard.

As a result of the inherent benefits associated with applying the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) process to the right matter, this field of practice is rapidly expanding and Vincents offers a unique team of specialists and facilities to assist in this process.

Vincents' Alternative Dispute Resolution experts can assist across a range of disputes including commercial, family, estate and insurance, providing assistance in the financial component of the ADR process whether it be for:

- Negotiations
- Mediations
- Collaborative practice
- Arbitration

Our team is drawn from a wide range of specialised accounting disciplines including nationally accredited mediators and industry leaders in accounting, taxation, superannuation and financial advisory.

Vincents' ADR team is skilled at conveying complex concepts and processes in a straight forward manner. Our experience has shown us that if the parties to the ADR process understand the concepts and processes, they will make a more valuable contribution and have greater ownership and understanding of the outcome.
