

Gain insight. Take control.

Family matters? Our backyard.

Legal professionals practising in the areas of family law are challenged by a constantly evolving legal framework and are often required to identify associated issues outside their expertise that require expert assistance.

Vincents' Family group, operating within the Forensic Accounting unit, provides expert litigation support to help legal professionals negotiate the accounting, business valuation and investigation challenges that frequently arise.

Our well established team is skilled at providing timely and cost effective expert reports and testimony for family litigation matters. We can work with you as a single expert, party appointed expert or consultant/shadow in both the mainstream litigation and collaborative law processes.

Our services

- Business & entity valuations
